For pay purposes, the Employee's birthday holiday will start at the beginning of his/her regular posted shift and end after forty eight (48) consecutive hours. Working an overtime shift on a day off or working day trades on will not start the birthday holiday pay.

An Employee who is awarded a bid location within the same city will fill the vacancy within no less than seven (7) days and no more than thirty (30) days from the award date. Where 2 or more Employees enter a new bid location at the same time, category seniority shall prevail as to which of the vacant shifts such Employees are entitled, provided that if neither Employee has seniority in the category involved, seniority with the Company shall prevail.
  - b. For bidding purposes, a successful bidder of a bulletined vacancy covered by this Agreement shall be considered to hold the classification from the award date of the bid, not the effective date of the bid.
  - c. A non-probationary Employee may bid on any bulletined vacancy, created as a result of a new or vacant position. The probationary Employee may bid on any bulletined vacancy created as a result of a new or vacant position in his/her station/base.
  - d. An Employee bidding for more than one vacancy shall indicate the order of preference on each bid.
3. All other vacancies other than those described in paragraph one (1) above will be considered as temporary vacancies, including but not limited to, vacancies occurring as a result of an Employee

  - (ii) Taking a leave of absence,
  - (iii) Being out sick or injured on the job;
  - a. Temporary vacancies which are anticipated to extend beyond sixty (60) days will be filled under Article 5, paragraph 10 for local Station only. When the Employee whose absence created the temporary vacancy returns to work, all affected Employees will return to their former position, shift and days off no earlier than seven (7) days unless mutually agreed upon by all affected Employees.

- 4. An Employee who has been assigned to a supervisory position or other duties within the Company may not bid on a vacancy. Said Employee may be appointed to a vacancy only after all bidding and recall procedures have been exhausted.
- 5. Any person bidding within the Material Specialist category shall hold the job to which he bid for a period of time not to exceed ninety (90) working days on a trial basis in order to demonstrate his ability to perform the work required for the job as outlined in Article 4 of this Agreement. During such period, if the Employee is unable to demonstrate his ability to perform the work required for the job, he shall be returned to his previous assignment.
- 6. If it is found that the job bid for is not as represented in the bulletin, the Employee may return to his previous assignment anytime within the qualification period.

If there are not sufficient jobs at the new location to provide employment for all displaced Employees, surplus Employees may exercise their seniority rights.
  - b. At the time any existing stockroom is closed, the Company shall notify the Union in writing whether such closure constitutes a relocation for purposes of this section, and, if so, the location or locations to which such work is being relocated.
- 9. In the event the Company determines that there is an additional requirement for Material Specialists at outlying stations, the Company agrees to give existing Material Specialists the right to bid such vacancies before hiring new personnel.
- 10. If a lead desires to return to his basic classification within his station, without a permanent vacancy occurring, such Employee will be allowed to do so provided the vacancy created by his return is filled through the bid process within his station. If the lead vacancy is not filled through the bid process, the lead shall not be permitted to return to his basic classification. A contingent vacancy bid will be held to determine if any qualified Employee in the same station bids the position. The remaining leads in that station will re-bid shifts and days off and the replacement lead will assume whatever shifts and days off remain. A re-bid of shifts and days off will be held within the Employee's basic classification and station and the Employee returning to his basic classification will be assigned to the shift and days off remaining open following the re-bid. The effective date of the replacement and the return to the basic classification will be on the same date as the newly bid shifts take effect.

3. Once vacation schedules are established, they will not be changed except by two (2) weeks written request to the Company and not then if it is in conflict with the vacation policy. Prior to the beginning of each month, if an available vacation slot of one week or more in that month becomes vacant, Employees in that bid location will be allowed to request to change their vacation date to the vacant slot. Award of the vacant vacation slot will be on the basis of seniority among those Employees with sufficient vacation time remaining.
4. Vacations are not cumulative but must be taken during the calendar year. If not taken by the end of that year due to a Company request that the Employee defer his vacation and the Employee agrees, the Employee shall be entitled to said deferred vacation during the succeeding calendar year or to pay in lieu of same at the option of the Employee. If taken during the succeeding calendar year, the vacation period will be bid after all current year bids have been assigned.
5. Employees leaving the service of the Company for any reason will be paid for any unused vacation accrued if the Employee has one (1) year of continuous service with the Company. If an Employee is being laid off because of a reduction in force and he had not had the one (1) year of service required to qualify under to provision of this paragraph, he shall be paid for all vacation time accrued. Employees going on a scheduled vacation will not be denied their earned vacation pay if they do not return to the service of the Company. Proper vacation allowance shall be paid to any Employee leaving the service of the Company because of reduction in force, resignation, or for military service. An Employee who resigns must give two (2) weeks' notice in writing before he is entitled to accrued vacation. In the case of a death of

7. An Employee may, at his option, split his vacation periods. Any or all vacation weeks may be taken in increments of no less than one (1) day provided he makes request with adequate notice prior to starting vacation. Except in cases of emergency, vacation days will be requested at least 24 hours in advance. However requests made less than 24 hours will be granted if a slot is available in the shift allocation and at least 8 hours' notice is provided. Less than required notification shall not preclude management approval of said requests pending the needs of service. The selection of increments less than one (1) work week does not count as a choice. The Employee after making a choice of his first period, shall not make a second choice until all first choices in his bid location have been completed and then in accordance in seniority. Third choices of vacation period will not be allowed until all first and second choices have been made. Selections in increments of less than one (1) work week may be made after all choices have been made. Employees shall have the right to obtain their vacation pay in advance, provided the Employee makes application to his immediate supervisor at least two (2) weeks prior to starting his vacation. It is understood that an internal Company investigation may be necessary before the Company has full knowledge of an incident. The fact-finding will be held within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of written notice of the nature of the charge(s) unless the fact-finding date is otherwise by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union. However, nothing shall preclude the Company's right to suspend an Employee pending such meeting. If either the Company or the Union deems the list to be unacceptable, either party may unilaterally request a second list. Such party shall assume the cost, if any, of obtaining the second list. A representative of the Company and a representative of the Union shall make every effort to meet within five (5) days of the receipt of the list and shall alternately strike three (3) names from the list. The party to strike first will be determined on an alternate basis. The seventh (7th) remaining person shall thereupon be selected as the impartial Arbitrator.

- d. If a stenographic transcript is made of the arbitration proceeding, the party making the request shall bear its expense, unless the request is made by the Arbitrator, in which case the cost of the transcript will be shared equally by the Company and the Union. LETTER OF INTENT NO.1 – MAINTENANCE BASE CITY RETRIEVALS

This letter of intent will support the discussion held in negotiations between Southwest Airlines and IBT with respect to same city retrieval of parts utilizing Material Specialists from Stores. It is the parties intent to maintain the current practice of using Material Specialists for same city pick up of aircraft parts when on property Material Specialist are available. It is understood that the current operating practices include AOG parts retrievals, and aircraft and tooling loans/borrows from the local airports within the same city in which a Maintenance Base Station is located. Currently, based on discussions between Management and Lead Material Specialist, if a Material Specialist is unable to meet the operational needs (availability of staffing or within time constraints) for retrieving the part, a vendor/currier service is engaged to provide such service. This determination is typically made by the AOG Controller through discussions with Lead Material Specialist and/or Stores Supervisor.

In addition to the procedure above, the current operating practice utilized to pick up and deliver the reworking of aircraft parts and/or aircraft tools as well as the pickup and delivery of parts by UPS, Fed Ex, etc., and the on property aircraft production vendor visits will continue under current practice.

In the event that SWA discontinues its contract at ATS/AAR or that those Companies relocate their MRO operations from PAE or IND to another location; the Material Specialists at the existing locations would be allowed to move to the new vendor, or existing vendor new location, or exercise their seniority. At the sole discretion of the Company, the Company may choose to continue or discontinue utilizing covered Employees at the Maintenance Repair Vendor when a vacancy becomes available as outlined in Article 2 paragraph 3 d.

IN ARBITRATION

In the Matter of the Arbitration between:
SOUTHWEST AIRLINES CO.

Seniority Integration:
Materials Specialists And Stock Clerks

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS
AND IBT LOCALS 19, 104, 528, 769 and 781

Before M. David Vaughn, Arbitrator

CONSENT AWARD

This proceeding takes place pursuant to a Seniority Integration Process Agreement dated June 26, 2012 ("SIPA") in effect between the International Brotherhood of Teamsters ("IBT" or "Teamsters"), Southwest Airlines ("SWA" or "Southwest") covering the crafts and classes of Stock Clerks represented by Local 528 of the IBT employed by Airtran Airways, Inc. ("Airtran") and Material Specialists represented by Teamster Locals 19, 104, 769 and 781 employed by Southwest. The SIPA was negotiated as a result of the merger between Southwest and Airtran. Southwest is the surviving carrier. IBT and SWA are the surviving "Parties" to the SIPA.

I serve as arbitrator of this dispute having been selected by the Parties in accordance with the SIPA. A hearing was scheduled and convened on October 22, 2012 at Southwest's offices in Dallas, Texas. The hearing was scheduled for two days. In the proceedings, Teamsters Local 528 is represented by William Baab, Esq. and Sanford Denison, Esq. of the law firm Baab and Denison; Teamsters Locals 19, 104, 769 and 781 is represented by attorneys Howard Susskind and Marcus Braswell, Jr. of Sugarman & Susskind, P.A.; Southwest is represented by Gerry Anderson, Esq. Nick Manicone of IBT's Airline Division also appeared. The several Teamsters Locals are, collectively, the "Union Parties" to the proceeding.

The purpose of the proceeding is to determine the fair and equitable integration of the seniority lists of employees in the respective classifications employed by the merging carriers. The SIPA provides all Parties with the opportunity to present evidence and argument in support of their respective positions and to cross-examine witnesses and challenge documents offered by any other.

The Union Locals agreed on a list of 21 Joint Exhibits, which were offered and received into the record without objection. The Parties agreed to use the services of a court reporter to memorialize the hearing. By agreement, the transcript is the official record.

The Union Parties worked diligently to resolve this dispute between themselves and, on the morning the hearing convened, were successful. They requested that the terms of their Agreement (the "Agreement") be read into the record and memorialized in a Consent Award. The Union Parties recited that the terms of their Agreement are as follows:

The Parties agreed, as an initial matter, that the employees at issue - Materials Specialist Craft in the service of Southwest and Stock Clerks in the service of AirTran - will be identified, using Southwest terminology as a "category" or "categories".

The substantive terms of the Agreement between the Union Parties, as clarified in the transcript, are as follows:

1. Southwest category employees employed as of October 21, 2012 shall receive three years additional constructive category seniority;
2. All category employees hired on or after October 22nd, 2012 shall be integrated on an unadjusted date of hire basis. All category employees hired on or after October 22, 2012 shall be integrated on an unadjusted category date of hire basis. Nothing in this resolution is to be interpreted or applied to affect the lead status of Southwest employees at the Orlando line facility.
3. AirTran category employees domiciled at Atlanta, Orlando, or Baltimore as of October 21, 2012 shall receive a second "base station only" category seniority date to be exercised only at their respective Atlanta, Orlando, or Baltimore base, consisting of their category service date of hire with additional constructive category seniority of three years.

Southwest was afforded opportunity to review the Agreement. It voiced no objection to the form or terms of the Agreement, as clarified.

The Agreement between the Union Parties is a result of hard work and involves difficult choices and compromises. Seniority Integration disputes are not easy to resolve. If they were, they would have been resolved short of the arbitration process. The result will never completely satisfy each and every person affected by it. However, I find this to have been a process and a result which is fair and equitable and which provides for an appropriate integration of the seniority lists. It will facilitate the integration of operations between the two carriers. I am pleased to endorse and issue it as a consent award.

SIPA provides, in Paragraph F, that the Final Award include all members of the combined craft or class in a single integrated Master Seniority List (the "List") and that an actual List be included as an attachment to the Award. The Parties have agreed on such a List. It is Attachment A hereto and is made a part of the Consent Award.

SIPA also provides, in Paragraph G, that I am to retain jurisdiction to resolve any disputes over the interpretation or application of the Final Award. For purposes of Paragraph G, this Consent Award constitutes the Final Award. Any dispute with respect to which jurisdiction is retained must be submitted to me within 30 days after the dispute arises, else it will be deemed untimely. The Award reflects my retention of jurisdiction.

CONSENT AWARD

Based on the Agreement between the Union Parties and the lack of objection by Southwest to that Agreement, the terms stated herein and the List which is Attachment A hereto shall constitute the resolution of the seniority integration dispute before me.

Jurisdiction is retained in accordance with Paragraph G of the SIPA.

Issued at Clarksville, Maryland this 14th day of November, 2012.

M. David Vaughn
